Anuheia lit a candle in honor of James.

God bless you Uncle Kimo. I'm sure my dad (Allan Wong) was waiting for you at the gates of Heaven. I remember growing up with you down at the fishpond. You would take Nel and I around and collect all the golf balls in the mud when it was low tide.

You always have ice cream in your fridge and goodies. Also taking us to the sandbar and going thru coconut island first on your orange little boat. I have so many memories of us with you at the fishpond. Thank you for being such a great uncle. Now you are reunited with Dad and I'm sure you two will be having a great time up there. Till we meet again. XoXo Anuheia

My condolences to you all. Kimo used to live down at the fishpond in Kaneohe. My late husband Allan lived with Kimo during Allan's single days. We all loved Kimo and have such fond memories of him. He was a very gentle, kind loving person and great Uncle to my 2 little daughters, Anela & Anuheia. He would take them to the store & buy them all sorts of candy. They loved him!. He would take strolls with my daughters down at the end of the fishpond property, especially when it was low tide. We would all go out to the sandbar in his orange old boat, no cover, So many fond memories of him there. He will truly be missed. I'm sure Allan met him at the gates. Thanks for the memories Kimo! Until we meet again. Odetta, Anela, Anuheia & Aulani Wong, KaneohePS...if someone can contact me when the services are, I would appreciate it very much. 381-4428 or email wongretiree1@aol.com
