Hi Barbara and Andolie, I was going to be traditional and send a card, but this is what came up when I looked for an address...Phil will be missed by many. I always appreciated his intelligence, insight, and wit, and old-fashioned gentlemanly ways. I believe he served as UU president more than once (that's what you get for doing a good job!) He was an excellent person that we could count on as one of the stalwarts of the UUs. I am happy to have so many memories of him as a vital part of the fellowship's history. I know your family went through a lot to be sure he had what he needed in recent years. I hope it will be of comfort to you to know that Phil lives on in many wonderful memories, and in the continuing UU fellowship. much aloha, Cory

We will miss him and send condolences to you and your family. warm regards, Jennifer Wheat and Michael Engstrom

Dear Barbara, I was so sorry to read of Phil's passing. He always greeted me so cheerfully whenever I saw him, lately at the concert hall. I imagined he was in good health in spite of his age. I'll miss those friendly encounters. Please extend my condolences to the rest of your family. Aloha, John Kooistra
