I wanted to share a memory from about 37 years ago. I was a out 7-8 yrs old then and also Margrets neibor. its bard to remember so long ago but I do remember playing in the yard and staying the night when she was baby sitting. I remember she was always happy to see this brown haired giggly kid. I remember when she moved and the new neibors moved in possibly around 1980 to 1982. When I heard of her passing I wanted to share this short story for thise close to her and give my condolences. May God be with you and family. Sincerly Terry Hightower

Devon and Maggie's ohana, I am so very sorry to hear of Maggie's passing. She was a wonderful soul and a beautiful person. Her career as a teacher inspired and touched so many lives. She will be remembered by her students, her colleagues and her friends and family as a totally dedicated teacher and person. Please accept my very deepest condolences on your loss and know that there are many others out there who share in your grief. Take care of each other. Maggie is now your guardian angel and will watch over all her loved ones. me ke aloha, Rae Yamanaka

Good day, The Department of Education Employee Benefits Unit would like to express our sympathy in the loss of your mother. I know and understand what you are going through after having to experience the same myself. We just found out of your mother's passing through correspondence our office received. We are trying to locate a Eugenia Brown. If you are in contact with this person, please have them contact our office on Oahu at (808) 441-8311. Please take care. S. Tong
