We remember Vic and Mary Lou fondly and all of the years that we worked together on many Cursillo teams on the Big Island. I even made a mustache with a chunk of Mary Lou's hair for a skit. There are many pictures of the many teams we wouldn't have without Mary Lou's photography. They were both true Christians and always gave of themselves to help others. Memories of them will always be a part of many lives. They are home together at last.
