To the Takahashi and Yamashita Families We are so sorry to hear of the passing of Stella, the loss of a family member is always a very sad event and it is all the more difficult when it happens unexpectedly. We know that words alone cannot lessen the sorrow you feel right now but we hope that the continued support of family, friends, and the passing of time will help. I am so sorry to hear of Stella's passing. She and I go back a long way from our days at Kurtistown School. It's too bad that we lost contact with each other. I left home for school in Oregon, and settled in Los Angeles, and came back to visit only sporadically. Stella was one of the nicest and strongest persons I knew. She had it pretty rough in the early years at school, but she endured all that was heaped on her with optimism, grace and determination. I'm glad that she made a great life for herself and her family. My deepest sympathy to her immediate family and her siblings. I still have vivid memories of playing at her house after school, and even though we lost touch, from time to time I've thought of her. In a lot of ways, she's impacted me in the way I treat and interact with people. For that I will forever be grateful. Kerry Fuse
