I send my condolences to Mike and his brothers and sister on the loss of their wonderful mother, Mary. She was, even when impaired by Alzheimer's, a fun and lovely person to be around. I guess my favorite memory is her trips to my little farm as Mike and I traded goats. She was so friendly and full of joy. I always admired Mike for his diligence in caring for her and taking her along for rides etc. I knew the siblings much less, but I'm glad Mary had her children around her at the end. I am privileged is knowing her. God bless you, her family as you move on in this life without her. Much love and aloha, Petie Brown
