Everyone loved Rosemary!

Rosemary was a world traveler and lived for her family. She followed her husband Robert W. Coughlin 1st. (Sergeant 1st Class, Special Forces - Green Beret) around the world, taking their 8 children to Japan, Europe and central America to live.

She loved animals, especially birds and dogs. She had a bird, "Willie Nelson," for 32 years! She had a wit and charm that stayed with her till the end. A huge L.A. Lakers fan, Rose's star player was Kobe Bryant! It was fun to watch the games with a 4' 7", 75 pound Grandma calling the shots.

In January 2019, Rosemary's ashes will be taken to her final resting place at Riverside National Cemetery in California, to be interred with her loving husband Bob.
