My kids and i remember having a great time watching Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory with Uncle BJ, of course ending up with sore bellies after all the laughter and popcorn and goodies we ate....BJ always made things so fun.

To our dearest Jim, Scott and family and Monica. We are thinking of you especially today for having to say a final goodbye to BJ. We wish we could be there with all of you to help comfort all of you in your grief. Please feel the love we are sending to each and every one of you. The last time we can remember seeing BJ in Hawaii was in 1988. He was just a little boy and so sweet. He was so happy going to see all the sites with us and always wanted to hold his aunty's hand along the way. Cannot remember if Jim and LouAnn came to Wisconsin after that. The times they did come, we always enjoyed so much. Rest in peace BJ. You and your mom are reunited in heaven. She has her son at her side again. Blessings to all of you. We love you all and are in our thoughts today and always. Our deepest sympathy. Uncle Joe and Aunt JoAnn
