I knew Cinnamon when she and I were attending University of Hawaii Manoa. I would appreciate learning more about her life if her husband would consider speaking to me. My name is Ray Henke. At the time I knew Cinnamon, my nickname was "Sunshine." I left Hawaii when I was 23 and only spoke to Cinnamon briefly when I was early in my career as a trial lawyer in Los Angeles and she was a nurse visiting LA for a convention. But Cinnamon made a lasting impression and it was with great sadness that I learned that she passed away. I left the U.S. in 2018 to go traveling and am still "on the road," with my "home base" here Cebu City, in the Philippines. My telephone number is +63 969 330 0661.
