We will truly miss Larry. I remember him as always willing to lend a hand and he was so handy as well. So blessed that he shared his talents with others so freely. He was never in a hurry and had time to stop and chat.

We shared several years of adult Bible study Sundays at Puna Covenant Church with John Hu as lead. Larry was full of stories and relevant comments. He was an empathetic listener, would debate politics given the chance and willing to share his feelings and his activities. Many a time he lent a helping hand or tool when possible. His good natured smile is missed and I thank God to call him "friend." Rest in peace, Larry, good and faithful servant, your work on Earth is done.

I knew Larry for 25 years beginning in 1985 when he was the framing contractor for my home in the Denver area, a home in which I still reside. He also worked as a general contractor for me on a number of projects in Denver and Breckenridge. He was a thoroughly decent and honest guy who was also willing to explain what he was doing and why for a particular phase of a project. Since he moved to Hawaii in 2011, I have been unable to find someone as good as he was! I am, grateful for the 25 years that he worked for me and wish him a peaceful eternity. David C.P.
