Mary Ann Ott posted:

Dear Harold, I was sorry to read about Betty's death in today's paper. I'm remembering all the great times we had square dancing. Jack passed on five years ago, but I have continued to return to Hilo for the winter. I see Norman Sletteland frequently as he takes care of my car when I'm on on the Mainland and we also keep in contact through Cursillo. "Those were the days, my friend, - we thought they'd never end." My daughter is with me this week and we plan to fly back to Colorado Thursday. May you find comfort in all the wonderful memories and move ahead with faith into the next phase of your life. Aloha, Mary Ann Ott
