Hi Daddy!!! im sorry that its getting less and less of time in between writtings. Specially now that work has been super crazy with the holiday season in motion. Even though work is stressful busy, it has been kinna keeping my mind busy so im not thinking of other things. Or stressing out on something else. So in between not getting enough sleep and work...all my days seem da same. This weekend [our weekend off of work] has been the second since we got back from Vegas the first time. We've been working 5-6 days a week. Last week with Thanksgiving B & I worked 6 days [straight] && boy did I definetly need this weekend to recooperate HAHA so i was able to catch up on some sleep. It was nice being able to sleep a little bit more then usual. I Miss You Daddy everyday, especially during this time of the year! && I know that i'm not the only one. But I know that you will forever be apart of us && with us...not only during this time of the year but always as well. Mom is doing as ok as ok can be without you around. We always laugh && talk about all of our good memories && time with you. She also shares some of the earlier times you && her have shared together. Most times I never took the time to even ask while I growing up. But i'm glad that I get to hear these stories && smile that just the thought of these moments happening. I Love You Daddy && I Miss You very very much.

Daddy...its been so so long since I wrote here. && im sorry for that, so much has happened since then. A lot of excitement && a lot of "business" I figured someone else would wanna share something here since the last time I wrote. Well first things first...We finally went on a "family" trip! That we planned for you Daddy. Although I know that you were with us every step of the way. && B && I Loved every moment of it. I pretty much waited all year for that trip && I can't wait for another one. Mom && I have been already talking about it since we got back last month. #VegasBaby so much i can't wait to do next time. Although honestly B && I are planning on moving up there within 2 years. Thats what we gave ourselves at least that amount of time. Here is just too much for us. Even with a good paying job, its just too expensive && we wanna get out && try for ourselves. Although it will be a pay cut for sure for us but at least we will have our own. You Know!? well as for work its that busy time of the year! Looking forward to the OT though...we definitely need that hours/pay/vacation hours. Got some new responsibility at work though. More computer work...more of the business side of things not just pushing boxes. But its just a "back up" role but it is something. so im looking forward to all of that at work though. Ill lyk how all of that goes though lol. && just a whole lot of other things going on too. I know that you know. Sometimes its just a lot for me to take in && a lot to have on my head for sure. && its been hard to sleep so ive been so tired recently. Wish you were here Daddy so i could hear your voice. I see you from time to time. && I smile && then i start to tear up! IMissYOU so much Daddy...I can't put into words how much i wish you were still here with us. But I know that you are looking down on us now. I Love You

DADDY....IMissYou very very much. Wishing you were here, missing your voice. There's so much i'd love to share with you. So much i'd love to tell you, although when i sit and think about it...you already may know. You are always in my heart Dad. Missing Mom too but B && I are definitely looking forward to seeing Mom && A again. Its coming to the time to make more memories. Of course Daddy its all for you!! I wish you were here. There's definitely some areas where, where..I wanna say something but you know how that would go. && honestly things aren't the way it should be going in those ares like its should be. Not what you (or mom) would want. I'd love to say something because you know Mom won't. But it'll only turn out to be a fight. Work is well...Work. Still stressful && of course irritating lol nothing changed at least for the better. But i just need to be thankful that we got a job and a good one at that despite that though. Looking forward to seeing Mom again, hopefully I wont have to wait too long though. So that i can come up to your hill. I LOVE YOU DADDY

This month makes a year && it's been quite a hard one. First of many emotions I [we] weren't ready for. I've been missing Mommy a lot as well. Trying to go spend the weekend soon. There so much I wish to tell you, although I'm sure you already know. && work doesn't make it any easier either. I wish I could've heard your voice on my birthday. Telling me "Happy Birthday" to have a short conversations, before you pass the phone to Mom. I miss you Daddy very very much. I wish you could sit with me again, while I go through my emotions with you. Sit with me no matter time of the night it was. I miss you Daddy very very very. I Love You-Roy

Hi Daddy!!!! I Miss You Daddy...everyday I think of you. I reminise of our memories, our laughs and everything that you have taught me. I share stories with B about it all :) Sometimes even the smallest of things remind me of you and there I am trynna hold back my tears. Just last week we were eating lunch on our day off...saw an old man that totally reminded me of you...&& there I was trynna hold back my tears while my eyes watered up on the table. But it was just a reminder that your Live && well. That your home with the Lord, the most beautiful place. && that one day we will see each other again. All of us will be together again Daddy. But until that day comes...well all will continue to be by Moms sides. And i will always continue to chekc in with Mom. between the phone calls i text mom and usually A will reply. Or we will google meet! its like Zoom but the quality is a bit better and we dont have to make a new one every like what was it 20min or so LOL so even that is nice. Just like during quarantine days, when we all would zoom on a Sunday and have a drinks ready LOL I Miss You Daddy...We All Miss YOur!!!!Thank You Daddy for everything you've left all of us. All the Love, wisdom, laughter, and memories. Daddy I Love You.

Happy Day Daddy!! I'd normally be calling you today and it feels weird that I can't. It's been a challenge to hold back the tears lately. Been thinking about you extra and having these random reminders of you. I MISS YOU so much Daddy. Mom said her and A were gonna come to your site this morning. I hope A put your sticker on your vase, that B and I picked out for you. B and I will have a slice of custard pie for you too. Work is still exhausting and pretty scary to do a lot of things. We were gonna fly up this month, but work. Today I have my first trainee Haha....wish me luck haha!! We'll see how that goes. I'm a bit nervous, but good thing I have B there with me to help. I Love You Daddy and I MISS YOU very much.

Daddy...how I miss you everyday. There are so many things that I want to share with you, even though you know already. It's been almost 7 months and it still doesn't seem real that you are no longer here, that I just can't pick up the phone and hear your voice on the other end. But i'm okay...Moms okay. I still call and check in with her at least once a week. Although work was busy last week. B and I sent a box of small kine goodies that they got on Friday. && we even sent one to C for her birthday lol man was it kinna difficult shopping for that box lol been thinking about K lately. although every time I text her I get a very very simple "yup" or "nope" kinna answer. But I guess thats okay dont really expect a story kinna reply. Other than that pretty much all is still the same (as far as I know). Even though I wish that you were still here, I know that your in a better place than here. You are home!! And that one day I will see you again Daddy. I Love You very very much and I Miss you even more.

Hi Daddy, I Miss You! I still doesn't feel real that you aren't here. When I call home, I can't just ask where you are or what you're doing. Even though i'd know that you were either napping or playing games on the computer. LOL. Mom misses you!

We talk about you, but I wish i could give her a hug during those conversations.

Aunty V has come to visit Mom. So mom will have fun, im excited for her. Now A has 2 ol ladyz LOL But even Mom sounded like she needed to have Aunty V around. which is good. its been awhile since i was home last. looking into coming home soon though. hopefully we can make it. but as you know things have gotten nothing but good here, so im hoping that they dont change the "travel rules" SMH. I Miss You Daddy very much. Yesterday i went to the dentist...&& you know how much i hate that. ugh i didnt wanna go but B told me to go or stop complaining when i have a tooth ache. Reminded me of you LOL so i went, but was scared of course. not looking forward to my next appointment in a couple of months. ILOveYOU Daddy
