Kevin Kaleimamo Medeiros

FEB 25, 1965 - MAR 14, 2025

It is with a heavy heart that we announce the untimely death of Kevin Kaleimamo Medeiros.

Kevin was born on February 25, 1965 in Honolulu, Hawaii to Alberta Barrett. He excelled in playing high school basketball for Iolani School and Kalani High in the mid 1980's. He was proud to be part of a winning team while at Iolani and made life long friends there and with competing school athletes.

He met and married Katherine Nanea Sai in 1995 in Honolulu and found common interest in playing softball. After living in Honolulu for some years, they moved to Kauai for nearly 20 years then finally moving to Kurtistown, Hawaii Island where he found his resting place.

While on Kauai, Kevin enjoyed coaching Kauai High boy's basketball and baseball teams. He affected many lives and continued to keep in touch with those he coached up until his passing.

Kevin had friendships from when he grew up in Kaimuki, going to St. Patrick's school, Iolani and Kalani High school. Kevin's passions were first and foremost keeping in touch with family and friends, he enjoyed cooking and experimenting with different foods (many of which were posted on Facebook), he loved music from many genres, and lastly he found his niche and eye for photography at which he was able to travel to different places in the world to capture the beauty for us to experience.

Kevin is survived by his loving wife, Katherine; mother, Alberta Barrett and step-father, Dennis Barrett; sisters, Renee Pangilinan, Christine Minardi, Andi Kuck, Alison Hong-LoGuercio and brother, Keoni Nakamoto; Aunty Geri Menezes, father in-law, Dennis Sai; numerous nieces, nephews & many cousins and last but not least his fur babies, Murray, Otis, Anela and Li'i.

The first day we met as members of the Hawaiian Heat Softball team, we hit it off. Our sense of humor was so aligned we could have been separated at birth. None the less, I considered you as a brother. Sorry I will not be there for your celebration of life, but you are missed and I love you bro. Tommy Awong.
